- 3. Code of Conduct: The link below (c) contains the guidelines for the expected behaviour of all attendees (including volunteers, mentors, sponsors, organizers, judges, etc.) at FOSS United Events. As an organizer of a FOSSHack local edition, you are expected to adopt, make publicly available, and enforce the Code of Conduct. If an incident is reported, organizers must immediately involve the FOSS United Team who will work with you to follow our official incident response procedure.
(c) <https://fossunited.org/code-of-conduct>
- 4. Reporting Violations:
Any incidents or violations should be immediately reported to -
  1. Vishal Arya (vishal@fossunited.org)
  2. Ansh Arora (ansh@fossunited.org)
- 5. Fundraising: Organisers are free to raise additional funds for the local hackathon, but all potential partnerships should be disclosed to the FOSS United Team before confirming. We do not partner with web3 or crypto related organisations. Read more about our stance on blockchain at (d) <https://fossunited.org/blog/technology/a-note-on-blockchain>.
